

Delta Pride 2017 Workshop Explanations

Morning:

- Outside Sports – Games are games, but sports are sports. Bring out your inner competitor as you play flag football, kickball, ultimate Frisbee, soccer and other outside sports.
- Theater – Campers will have fun with improv games, acting prompts, skits, charades, drama, and more.
- Arts and Crafts – Campers will make a variety of arts and crafts projects that they will get to take home at the end of camp.
- Memory Makers – Capture the Delta Pride experience through photographs, videos, and stories. Campers should try to provide their own camera if they wish to work as a photographer. Extra cameras will be limited.

Afternoon:

- Team Building – Learn to grow your leadership and team building skills with this fun, hands-on workshop. Counselors and campers will work through teamwork activities, games, group discussions, and more.
- Dance – Practice the basics of dance while you learn choreographed dance routines. Show off your skills or just have fun on the dance floor!
- Missions – Learn about different types of mission work opportunities, including trips, community service, and volunteer work available to those who want to serve the Lord. Campers will get to help with small, on-campus mission projects for the Wesley.
- Arts and Crafts – Campers will make a variety of arts and crafts projects that they will get to take home at the end of camp.

Evening:

- Outside Games – Outside fun like water games, relay races, red rover, tag, oversized board games, etc.
- Choir and Band – Learn songs to perform at closing ceremony with the camp band. Instrumentalist must bring your own instruments.
- Going Green – Campers will have the opportunity to do science experiments, hands on projects, and fun activities, all while learning about the environment.
- Cooking – Campers will learn how to cook fun and easy meals. There will also be cooking games like Iron Chef and Chopped. Limit 8-10 campers.
